

Q How long a conversation did you have with them at that time?

A How long a conversation? Not very long; we talked about -- I don't think we talked about anything except the camp and I imagine they were not in Lavalette more than an hour and a half to two hours.

Q This conversation was in the presence of the Gorslines and Mr. and Mrs. Hall?

A Yes; I hardly said anything to Mr. Gorsline . If I remember it was the only time I ever talked to him in my life.

Q Did you talk to Mr. Hall at all alone?

A Only when we walked down to see the camp site; hardly a bit.

BY MR. PFEIFFER:

Q Was there any conversation about Mrs. Eleanor Mills?

A None that I remember.

Q Had you ever heard of Mrs. Mills at this time, Mr. Stevens?

A I never had. If I had -- if Mrs. Mills had been mentioned it would have been through Mrs. Hall in saying they were -- in connection with church work or something of that kind, but I don't remember ever hearing Mrs. Mills' name mentioned, although I won't say that it was
